- Commercial projects
- Hospitality sector projects

PRODUCT

Versatility and Efficiency

ONIX® designs and conceives of glass mosaic as a fundamental element in interior and exterior decorating. Not only does glass mosaic offer a wide range of aesthetic possibilities and, in turn, a great capacity for customization, decoration and design, it also yields many important functional properties.

PRODUCT

Versatility and Efficiency

Glass mosaic is highly resistant to humid environments, has zero porosity and is resistant to thermal shocks, making it the perfect option for any and all types of spaces.

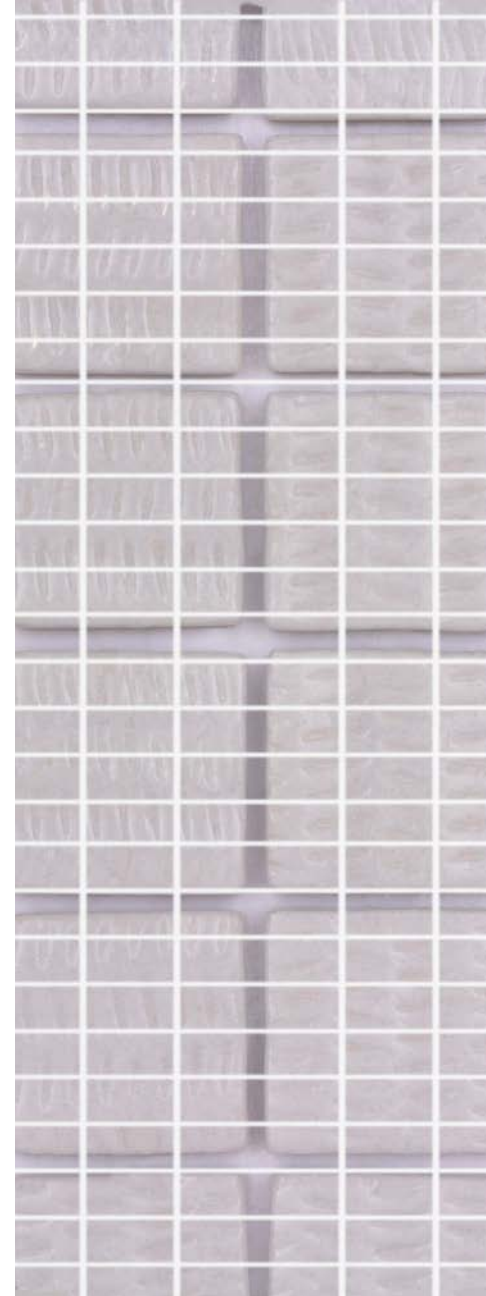

Additionally, its hygienic and antibacterial properties and ease of cleaning explain why more and more people are choosing this material for all types of projects.

The Latest for 2021-2022

Chromatic innovation in glass mosaic

With the launch of a new color never before seen in glass mosaic, ONIX® "teal" mosaics perfectly capture that moment when the blue of the sky melts into the turquoise of a calm sea.

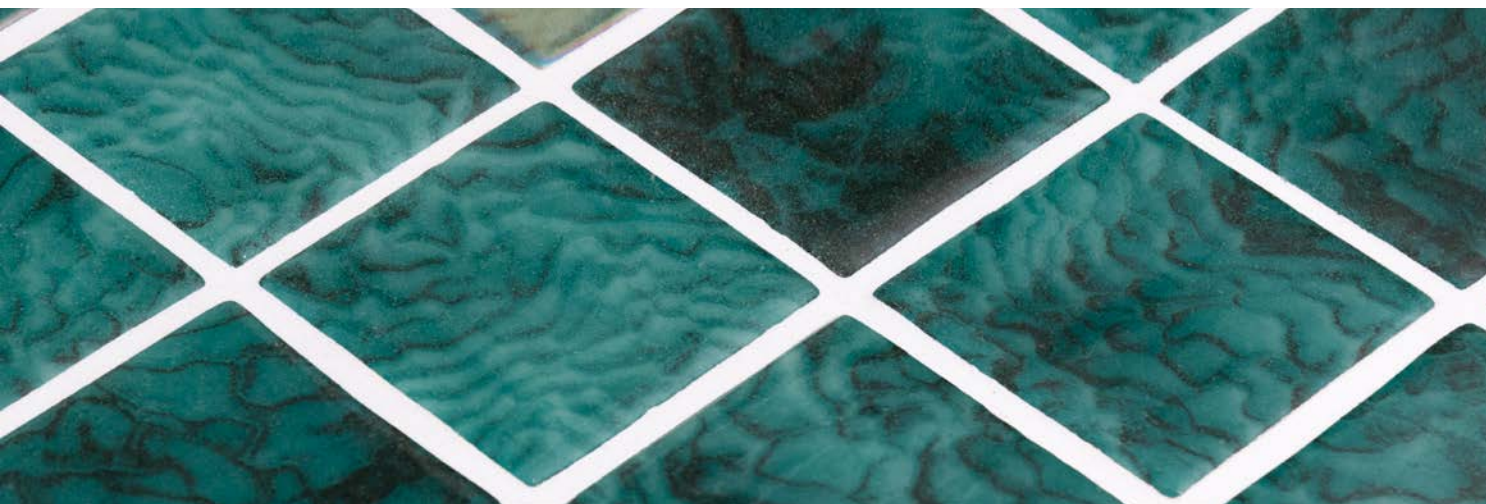

The Latest for 2021-2022

Chromatic innovation in glass mosaic

ONIX® thus expands the chromatic spectrum, achieving a wide variety of tones and vivid mosaics.

A new color that also acts as the perfect complement to warm colors, accentuating them and maximizing their possibilities.

The Latest for 2021-2022

New range of colors

ONIX® has explored and found inspiration in fashion, textile and interior design trends, in order to achieve a color palette that responds perfectly to the needs of any decoration project.

The Latest for 2021-2022

New range of colors

ONIX® has opted for a range of pastel or “desaturated” tones that lend calm and serenity to spaces without masking their identity. A range that contemplates cool tones such as very natural greens, varied tones of blue that capture the essence of the sky and the sea in all its forms, a gamut of neutral tones, and, finally, the warmth of a full spectrum of earth colors.

The Latest for 2021-2022

New finishes for decoration

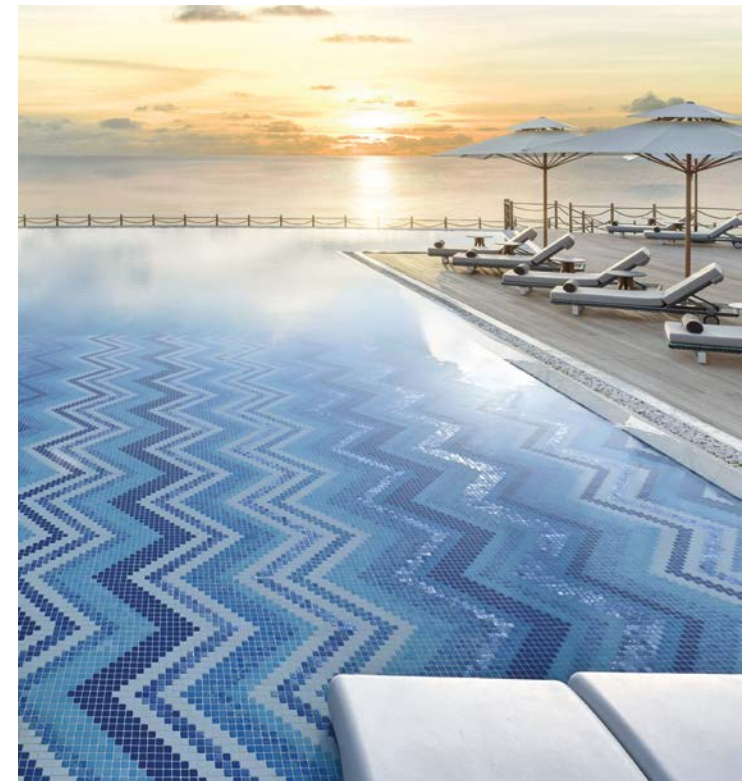

ONIX® is once again committed to combining technique, innovation and design in a range of products reflecting a clear industrial inspiration, offering everything from cement-type finishes combined with textile textures to carefree paint and rust effects.

In turn, ONIX® has expanded its collection of mosaics in stone and marble finishes, achieving a full range of colors from gray to beige.
